Due to the evolving nature of the law school curriculum, new courses or seminars may count toward the certificate course requirements; inquiries about whether a particular course qualifies should be directed to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, who will consult with the relevant faculty members as necessary. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs also has the authority to remove courses from the above list of electives if they are no longer offered.

Non-law school courses may be taken to fulfill the elective credit requirement with prior approval by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Such courses will be approved by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in consultation with the relevant faculty members.

- 3. Students must complete all certificate requirements with at least a B overall average and no grade lower than a B- in courses taken to satisfy the certificate.
- 4. Students must write a paper that satisfies the Seminar Paper Requirement dealing with business or tax law.
- 5. Students may apply a maximum of 6 credit hours earned while participating in a business or tax externship toward the 17 credit hour requirement, such as the New Ventures Externship, a judicial placement with a bankruptcy court or trustee, or a placement with a corporate law department or a government agency such as the IRS or the SEC. The 6 credit limit for externship hours does not include the hours taken in a required course associated with the externship.
- 6. A student may not exercise a CR/NC option in a course that counts toward the certificate.
