

CERTIFICATE OF SPECIALIZATION

Public Interest Law and Policy

Juris Doctor students who have demonstrated a specialized proficiency in advocating for traditionally under-represented individuals, communities, and interests may receive a Certificate in Public Interest Law and Policy in addition to their Juris Doctor degree.

To qualify for the certificate, students must complete the following requirements:

- 1. Students must meet all general requirements for a J.D. degree.
- 2. Students must complete a total of 17 semester credit hours that must include:
Administrative Law (3)
or Legislation (3)
or Statutory Interpretation (2)
and the remaining 14 or 15 credit hours of elective study chosen from the following courses (not all of which are offered each year):

- 19th Century Disadvantaged Groups
- Adoption Law
- Antitrust Law
- Any Clinic Course
- Consumer Law
- Disability Law
- Elder Law
- Election Law
- Employment Discrimination
- Equality, Race, and the Law

Due to the evolving nature of the law school curriculum, new courses or seminars may count toward the certificate course requirements; inquiries about whether a particular course qualifies should be directed to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, who will consult with the relevant faculty members as necessary. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs also has the authority to remove courses from the above list of electives if they are no longer offered.

Non-law school courses may be taken to fulfill the elective credit requirement with prior approval by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Such courses will be approved by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in consultation with the relevant faculty members.

- 3. Students must complete all certificate requirements with at least a B overall average and no grade lower than a B- in courses taken to satisfy the certificate.
- 4. Students must write a paper that satisfies the Seminar Paper Requirement dealing with public interest law or public policy.
- 5. Students must complete at least 3 hours of coursework in a clinic or externship. Students may apply a maximum of 6 externship credits toward the certificate. The 6 credit limit for externship hours does not include the hours taken in a required course associated with the externship.
- 6. Students must earn the Certificate of Service by completing at least 50 hours of pro bono activities under the auspices of the Pro Bono Initiative to satisfy the Certificate in Public Interest Law and Policy.
- 7. A student may not exercise a CR/NC option in a course that counts toward the certificate.
